Thanksgiving Day Walkabout planned for Martha's Mission

Enjoy a Thanksgiving Day morning walk with Hungry Town Tours on the Historic Beaufort Walking Tour. The walk takes place on Thursday, November 23, starting at 9 a.m. The tour will last 1 to 1¼ hours. The cost is $20 per person or $15 per person with a donation of two large non-perishable items for Martha's Mission Cupboard.

Discover the historic homes in Beaufort that once belonged to the town's earliest sea captains, seafarers and merchants. Stroll leisurely down the tree-lined streets as your guide tells you about Beaufort's past.

The Beaufort Historic District was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1974. There are about 285 historic homes in the district; of these, over 150 boasts plaques awarded to home at least 100 years old, dating back to the late 1700s.

See everything Beaufort has to offer and why this North Carolina town rivals any seaside destination, earning the town its title of "America's Favorite Town" by Travel + Leisure magazine, "Coolest Small Town in America" by Budget Travel Magazine and "Best Yachting Town" by Yachting magazine.

The Historic Beaufort Walking Tour is limited to a maximum of fifteen participants. This is an easy walking tour for people of all ages. Space is limited. Call 252-648-1011 for reservations from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Open year-round, Hungry Town Tours offers fifteen different award-winning walking, bike, culinary and history tours. The tour company is a three-time recipient of the TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence Award. Hungry Town Tours was featured in the June issue of Our State magazine with 22 pages of stunning photography highlighting "Beaufort by Bike."

Visit Hungry Town Tours online at hungrytowntours.com. They are located at 400 Front Street on the waterfront in Beaufort. X
