

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

Contact: David Cartier 252.503.7449 (mobile)
Hungry Town Tours 252.648.1011
400 Front Street info@hungrytowntours.com
Beaufort, North Carolina 28516 hungrytowntours.com

Hungry Town Tours offers unique Bike, Brunch & Bubbles experience

Looking for a unique Sunday Brunch on The Crystal Coast? Look no further than Hungry Town Tours of Beaufort, North Carolina for their Bike, Brunch & Bubbles tour.

Enjoy a two-wheeled, street-level, insider's view of life, culture and history combined with Sunday Brunch. It's the best way to see America's Favorite Town. You'll get an insider's perspective on where the locals go to eat and play. Enjoy history at an easy pace.

After the tour, you'll head to Beaufort Grocery Company, one of the area's most renowned dining establishments, where you'll enjoy Sunday Brunch.

You'll choose your entrée from several culinary features such as Benedict Arnold, crab cakes on red neck rusks with poached eggs, asparagus, sweet potato threads & Hollandaise or Eggs Florentine, sautéed spinach & Portabellas on Parmesan red neck rusks with poached eggs, garlic potato sticks & Hollandaise. Enjoy a mimosa or Bloody Mary, and non-alcoholic beverages. Tours are available on Sundays starting at 10 a.m. Ages 21 and older.

The cost is $69 per person, includes guide, choice of brunch menu, coffee or tea, mimosa or Bloody Mary, restaurant gratuity, taxes, and bike rental.

Hungry Town Tours also offer a walking version of Bike, Brunch & Bubbles called Sunday Brunch Walkabout.

Hungry Town Tours is located on the waterfront at 400 Front Street, Beaufort, North Carolina. Visit the website at www.hungrytowntours.com. Call for advanced reservations at 252.648.1011 from 7 a.m. to 9 p.m.

About Hungry Town Tours

Hungry Town Tours offers several unique bicycle and walking tours in Beaufort, North Carolina. On the Hidden Beaufort Tour, participants learn what makes Beaufort beautiful, historic and, at times, a little unique. Tour participants pedal through 300 years of Beaufort's history on easy-going retro-cruiser bikes. Other history bicycle tours include the Early Morning Risers Tour, and Legends & Lore of the Sea. They even offer the Historic Beaufort Walking Tour, a walking version of the Hidden Beaufort Tour.

A Ride to Remember features places in Beaufort that were inspired by Nicholas Sparks and referenced in his books, "The Choice" and "A Walk to Remember."

On the culinary tours, Hungry Town Tours promotes restaurants with locally-sourced food that allow for an enhanced guest experience for those visiting Beaufort. They pride themselves in working with restaurants offering fresh, local products that support local fishermen and farmers. The culinary bike tours include the Beaufort Culinary Bike Tour, North Carolina Shrimp Tour, the North Carolina Oyster Tour, Beaufort Lunchbox Tour, and Bike, Brunch & Bubbles. Walking versions include the Food by Foot Culinary Walking Tour, and the Sunday Brunch Walkabout.

As a recipient of the 2017 TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence Award, travelers have consistently rated Hungry Town Tours the #1 activity on the Crystal Coast. Their culinary tours are rated #1 in North Carolina.

Hungry Town Tours is the first business in Carteret County to be accepted into the NC GreenTravel Initiative. They successfully promote green from "spoke to fork" by combining nature-based travel with culinary tourism through bicycle tours.

For more information, call Hungry Town Tours at 252-648-1011 or visit them online at www.hungrytowntours.com. They are located on the waterfront at 400 Front Street in Beaufort, NC.

About Beaufort Grocery Company

Charles Park C.E.C., and his wife Wendy, established the Beaufort Grocery Company in 1991 on the site of the old Owens Grocery Store. Charles serves as Executive Chef of the establishment, while Wendy manages the front of the house and doubles as Pastry Chef.

He is a graduate of the Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park, New York, a member of the prestigious Chaîne des Rôtisseurs™.

In 1994, the restaurant was expanded to the adjacent property at 115 Queen Street where special dinners, private parties, wedding receptions and other catered events are accommodated in the historic house, as well as in its beautifully landscaped garden.

Open six days a week (closed on Tuesdays) for lunch and dinner, the luncheon fare consists mainly of creative homemade soups, salads, deli-type sandwiches, fresh baked bread and a large assortment of Wendy's delectable varieties of cheesecake and other unique desserts. Take out service, including prepared picnic baskets are available. Brunch is also served on Sundays as a complement to the daily luncheon fare.

In the evening, the Beaufort Grocery Company transforms into one of the area's most renowned dining establishments with daily seafood specials and a wide variety of other entrées, appetizers and desserts complimented by one of the region's premier wine lists.

About Beaufort's Dining Destination

With world-famous fishing, North Carolina's Crystal Coast is most known for its local seafood. Beaufort is no exception. Boats dot the waterfront, from private yachts and massive sailboats to trawlers bringing locally owned restaurants "fresh from the docks" sea fare. But, the sea is only where our cuisine starts in the historic seaport of Beaufort.

Beaufort offers over 20 chef-or-family owned restaurants serving up dishes both traditional and creative, from North Carolina barbecue to classic bistro fare. Many restaurants feature North Carolina craft beers and wines. Family-friendly eateries, pubs, and romantic gourmet destinations - many with history and stories as delicious as the food.

Each year Historic Beaufort explodes with flavor as the Beaufort Wine & Food Weekend welcomes celebrity chefs, winemakers, and sommeliers for charitable events to benefit local Carteret County organizations. The five-day event pairs exceptional wines with great food, and draws tourism into the area with wine luncheons and dinners, seminars, art, music and tastings. The main event takes place in Beaufort; however, various events are conducted at restaurants and other locations in nearby towns. The Vin De Mer Grand Tasting Village takes place on Saturday in Beaufort and features a huge tasting tent filled with wines and foods. The event takes place April 25 – 29, 2018. www.beaufortwineandfood.org.

####