

Hidden Beaufort Bike Tour

It's the perfect bicycle tour to see a unique side of Beaufort. From the pirate, Blackbeard to shipbuilders and historic homes, your local guide will reveal a side of history you won't get anywhere else.

The Beaufort Historic District was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1974. There are about 285 historic homes in the district; of these, over 150 boasts plaques awarded to home at least 100 years old, dating back to the late 1700s.

This is an easy bicycle tour for people of all ages.

The Hidden Beaufort Tour is the ideal tour for first time visitors, long time tourists that have been coming to Beaufort, people relocating to the Crystal Coast and couples looking to retire here. You'll get an insider's perspective on where the locals go to eat and play.

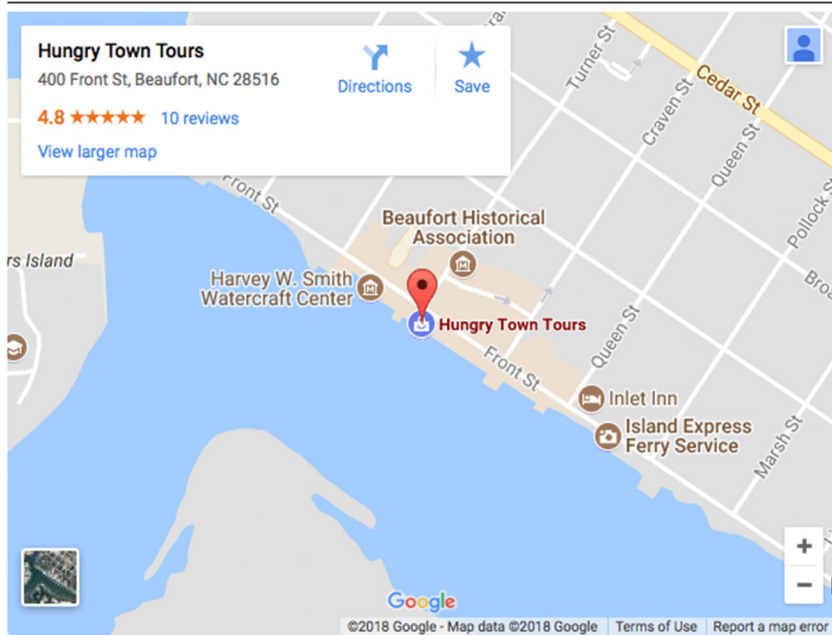

Let's not forget the locals! Residents that have lived in Beaufort for over 25+ years have enjoyed this tour. They have found this to be a great way to entertain out-of-town visitors and relatives.

The Hidden Beaufort Tour is limited to a maximum of eight (8) participants, allowing for a more intimate and manageable group that offers you maximum enjoyment.

Open year-round, Hungry Town Tours offers fifteen different award-winning walking, bike, culinary, and history tours. Winner, TripAdvisor Certificate of Excellence Award.

It's the best way to see "America's Favorite Town."
