CRYSTAL COAST, NORTH CAROLINA

Wild horses, 85 miles of glimmering beaches, the oak-lined streets of historic Beaufort — these are just a few of the perks that make the Crystal Coast a fun friends-only getaway. Surprise your friends with a walking or biking tour inspired by Nicholas Sparks's A Walk to Remember, which took place in Beaufort (see, aren't you glad you're just with your girls to geek out over that?). And try snagging a room at The Cedars Inn, a waterfront hotel with a wildly tasty restaurant featuring menu standouts like pan-seared local shrimp and scallops and grilled New Zealand rack of lamb.
